THURSDAYS IN THE PARK
FREE SUMMER CONCERT SERIES

All concerts start at 7 p.m.
Bring a blanket or chairs!

June 9, Shore Shakespeare—presents William Shakespeare's Macbeth, directed by Shelagh Grasso. This most infamous of plays explores the darker side of the human soul as the title characters confront ambition, prophecy, temptation, and murder. Chesapeake Heritage & Visitor Center, 425 Piney Narrows Rd, Chester. US 50 Exit 41

June 23, Chesapeake Sons—this dynamic duo brings a rejuvenating edge as well as class tight harmonies to country music. Citing influences like the Black Crowes, Chesapeake Sons have a unique and refreshing style. They can rock out on guitar with explosive crescendos but are still able to sing to the hearts of many with their vulnerable ballads. Hemingway's Restaurant, 357 Pier One Rd., Stevensville; food & beverages available.

July 21, Chris Sacks Band—get your flip flops on and come to enjoy a creative blend of breezy tropical roots rock, beach music with influences of Jimmy Buffet, The Rolling Stones, and Bob Marley. Says Sacks, "What I think about when I pick up my guitar; songs that convey true emotion and tell a story that takes you away from it all for a while." Hemingway's Restaurant, 357 Pier One Rd., Stevensville; food & beverages available.

August 11, O'Brennan Brothers — Hemingway's Restaurant, 357 Pier One Rd., Stevensville, food & beverages available.

August 25, Wheelhouse—Classic rock spiked with the latest hits plus some Motown and awesome jazz thrown in for flavor! Combine very talented musicians, outstanding vocals and exciting stage presence. That's Wheelhouse! Hemingway's Restaurant, 357 Pier One Rd., Stevensville; food & beverages available.

Concerts are open to the public and held rain or shine. Call the Arts Council (410-758-2520) in the event of extreme weather alerts regarding concert changes. Presented with support from Hemingway's and the Maryland States Arts Council.
